CITY ITEMS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Broughton Sykes will leave the city this week for Montgomery, Ala., to take charge of Dr. Caffey's drug store. She will be accompanied on her trip by Drs. C. B. Wickham, C. A. Dier, who will be en route to New Orleans, and Dr. W. S. Stevens, who goes to Florida.

Miss Annie T. Ballantine, of Fisk University, spent Friday with Mrs. Mary A. Southall, 811 South street.

After being away thirty years, Mr. John H. Hooper, of Minneapolis, Minn., has returned to Nashville to make his future home. Mr. Hooper is a brother of Mrs. Joseph H. Horcorn, 83 University street, and uncle of Madams Payne, Graves and McEwen, and Messrs. Choney, of 511 Twelfth avenue, North.

Miss Hattie Payne, of 307 Seventh avenue, North, and James McGreen spent Saturday in Murfreesboro.

Mr. A. J. Eubanks, of Hickorywith, Tenn., spent two days in the city this week and was a pleasant caller.

Dr. Oliver Reynolds, of Meharry, left the city Saturday night for Chicago, where he will spend the summer, returning in the fall to take up his studies.

Miss Maggie Green, of Columbia, was in the city last week to witness the Boyd-Clemmons nuptials.

Miss Freddie Lee Jordan, of No. 923 Hawkins street, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Mt. Pleasant and Columbia, Tenn., has returned.

Mrs. Reuben Oneal, of 1810 Thompson street and mother-in-law, Mrs. George Oneal of 618 Bass street, are visiting relatives in Wartrace.

Mrs. Marshall Thompson, who resides at 125 Eleventh avenue, North, has recently been added to the long list of readers of the Globe.

Mrs. Emeline Brown, of Tullahoma, Tenn., left for her home on Thursday. She was here, the guest of her grandsons, A. T. and Lovell Landers. She was entertained at dinner by Mrs. R. H. Boyd while in the city.

Rev. S. L. McGee, who is pastoring several of the progressive churches in the Nashville District Tennessee Conference of the C. M. E. Church, was in the Globe office on Friday for a business call.

The residence of Mr. J. Blaine Boyd, No. 1502 Fourteenth avenue, North, has been very beautifully repainted. The work was done very creditably by two of Nashville's enterprising Negro house painters.

The Globe should be read by every Negro in Nashville. If the agent don't call on you to solicit your subscription, call on Main 4323--L for it.

Rev. H. J. Johnson, presiding Elder of Nashville District Tennessee Conference of the C. M. E. Church, is making preparations now for the meeting of his General Board that meets in Jackson, Tenn., on May 1. A large attendance is expected, and business of importance will come up for consideration.

Mr. J. W. DeWees spent several days in Clarksville this week on business.

Mr. Green Garrett, an account of whose illness was published in these columns last week, is able to be out.

Mr. Horace Slatter, of Hopkinsville, Ky., the well-known general newspaper correspondent, has been in the city this week covering the Meharry commencement and attending other business.

The Knights of Pythias are planning for a big rally in May to help pay off the indebtedness on the Pythian Temple.

Dr. Mansfield E. Bryant will spend a few months in Chicago preparatory to taking the examination before the state board.

Mr. G. Haven Moores left for Chicago Saturday night.

Fourteen colored men entered the civil service examination which was held at the Custom House Monday.

Miss Jessie E. Smith, of Sixteenth avenue, North, met with a painful accident last Tuesday in which her leg was broken. She was carried to Mercy Hospital, where the injured member was treated.

Mr. Chas. Alexander left the city Saturday night for Chicago, where he will spend his vacation.

Mrs. Wm. Hill and Miss Frankie Hill, of Ewing avenue, who have been confined to their room by illness for several days, are convalescent.

Miss Ella Kennedy, of Columbia, Tenn., spent a few days in the city last week. She came over to witness the Boyd-Clemmons wedding. Miss Kennedy is an active missionary and is said to be doing a good work organizing starlight and missionary bands.

The Globe acknowledges the receipt of an invitation from the medical, dental and pharmaceutical classes of Meharry Medical College, by the faculty and class of 1907, which will be held to-night at 7:30 at the Ryman Auditorium.

A friend of the Day Home Club presented Mrs. J. C. Napier, the President, a beautiful little collection box to be placed in some public building for soliciting funds for the Day Home club. The box is made on the order of a cradle and will attract the attention of passersby.

Miss Maud Roberts, of Walden University, will finish with the Normal Class of 1907 and will immediately leave for her home in Chicago. It is not known whether she will return to Nashville or not. If she does not decide to take a college course here, she will possibly enter the Northwestern. Walden will lose one of its attractive students and one of the sweetest singers that has ever visited the city.

Among the young ladies who attended the Meharry Medical College this year is Miss Maud Moses, who entered as a Freshman. On the 19th inst. she concluded her first year as a member of the pharmaceutical department and is expected to leave for her home, San Antonio, Tex., early next week, but will return to take up her studies in September.

Rev. P. H. Kennedy, of Henderson, Ky., was in town on business one day this week.

Mr. Moses McKissack and son, of Pulaski, Tenn., spent two days in Nashville this week.

Mrs. R. H. Boyd is owner of a Patterson Buggy. It is a No. 8 Stanhope. Mrs. Boyd was seen in it last Sunday on Fourteenth avenue, North.

Mrs. E. H. McKissack, of Holly Springs, Miss., is in the city the guest of Mrs. James Hunter, of 1309 Hynes street. Mrs. McKissack is here to be present at the commencement exercises at the Ryman Auditorium to-night. Her son, Mr. A. C. McKissack, graduates from the medical department.

Mr. J. Perry Patterson, of the class of 1907, Meharry Medical College, is expected to leave the city during the next week for his home in Jacksonville, Fla., where it is said that he will locate. Mr. Patterson has been in the city for the past four years during the school term and has made many friends. Gossip has it that Mr. Patterson will be married to one of the Southern belles in the near future. Just who this young lady is could not be learned. Mr. Patterson did state, however, to a Globe reporter that while he had visited nearly every section of the United States, he knew of no place that he would rather locate than at his home in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. E. T. Fields who finished with the dental class of Meharry, will leave the city early next week for his home in Canton, Miss., where he proposes to locate. Mr. Fields is one of the few young men who has passed quietly through this great medical institution and has spent his vacations each year mingling with friends in his home town. Hence he has encouraged a large acquaintance and will undoubtedly enjoy an excellent practice.

Mr. C. B. Wickham, who is possibly one of the best known students that has attended the Meharry Medical College for several years, will locate in New Orleans, La. This is his home. Already extra preparations are being made for his entertainment upon his arrival in the Crescent City. Being a young man of high standing at home, he will no doubt fall right in with the professional men, controlling his share of the practice. His experience in getting among people will assist greatly in his future career.

The many friends of Mrs. Adeline Scott, the mother of Mrs. Belle Curtis, will be glad to know that she is able to be out.

Mrs. Shivers has returned from Louisville, where she has been visiting her daughter.

Mr. Andrew Hatch and Miss Bertha D. Webb were united in marriage Wednesday evening, March 27, at the residence of the bride on Tennessee street. Rev. Wm. Haynes performed the ceremony. Only relatives and a few friends were present.

Mr. Walter Clark, a driver of one of H. G. Hill & Co's delivery wagon, who lives at the corner of Jackson and Morrison streets, was very sick Tuesday night. At the time of this writing he has slightly improved.

Mr. William M. Flowers, formerly foreman of the pressroom of the Baptist Publishing House, who has been in poor health for some time, is improving. He made a brief call Wednesday on his former associates, who gave him a hearty welcome and expressed their surprise at seeing him look so well.

It is rumored that Dr. H. McBrooni, formerly of this city, but who has for the past few months been located in Chattanooga, met with a very serious accident this week. While he was on his way to see a patient his horse became frightened and ran away, throwing him from his buggy and breaking two of his ribs.
